Centre d'entraide d'Argenteuil

Located at 171 rue Mary in Lachute, the Centre d'entraide d'Argenteuil is a food bank. It is a non-profit organization, supported mainly by volunteers, that provides free distribution of food and other essential items to vulnerable people who lack enough food.

Am I eligible for food bank services?

You must live in an area served by a food bank and meet certain eligibility criteria such as income and available resources, your living situation, and your responsibilities. Note that the criteria are more flexible due to the current COVID-19 pandemic.

Please contact the organization at 450-562-5151 #9 to discuss your situation.

It is important to note that the range of food choices depends largely on the donations received. In this emergency situation, it is not possible for beneficiaries to choose their food. Distribution is held on Thursdays in alphabetical order.

If your family name starts with the letters:

A-F: 9:00-9:30 am

G-L: 9:30-10:00 am

M-Z: 10:30-11:00 am

It is very important to respect the times and the new directives to ensure that the distribution runs smoothly. Delivery service is available for people aged 70 and over. We also provide emergency food assistance and prepared meals.
